ASIA OCEANIA

AUSTRALIA

- The Australian Library and Information Association \(ALIA\) has attended several meetings with its Federal Government Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade (DFAT). At the first meeting, in May 2015, ALIA explained the potential of libraries to assist in delivering the draft agenda. Since then, the discussions have broadened to three roles: Libraries supporting the freedom of access to information outcomes, libraries providing examples of success, which can be used as part of Australia's reporting, and libraries helping to communicate the 2030 agenda to the general population.
- Towards the end of 2016, ALIA arranged for DFAT executives to attend a meeting of peak bodies representing galleries, libraries, archives, museums, historical societies, and other collecting institutions, to explore the opportunity for a broader Galleries, Libraries, Archives, Museums (GLAM) approach to the Sustainable Development Goals.
- At the same time, the ALIA Board has reviewed its own Constitution and there will be an opportunity for Members to vote for a new Object of the Association related to the Sustainable Development Goals at its AGM in May.
- Australia has signed an agreement to join the IFLA IAP Programme in January 2017.

- During the meeting with NIWA, the proposal to establish an advocacy committee was discussed and accepted. The members of this committee are being defined.

NIGERIA

- Participants organized an awareness-raising workshop for librarians in Anambra State, Nigeria during the 2016 General Conference and Annual General Meeting in Awka, on 6-7 December 2016. The theme was "Equitable Quality Education and Lifelong Learning Opportunities for Sustainable Development in Nigeria: The Role of Libraries". 69 participants registered for the conference that had as main objective to improve the knowledge of librarians in the Anambra State on the important role public libraries can play in achieving the SDGs.
- Participants are planning to request an audience with the Anambra State Special Advisor on SDGs as a first step towards advocacy for the inclusion of libraries in National Development Plans.
- Participants and IAP trainer from Nigeria have created a Facebook Group "Nigerian Librarians SDGs Action Group \(NLSG\)" as a platform for librarians to share resources and discuss about libraries and the SDGs. This is a closed group with currently more than 340 members, but librarians from other countries are welcome to join.
- A meeting with the Nigerian Library Association \(NLA\) will take place in February 2017 where participants will report on the IAP workshop. They intend to use the opportunity to do a train-the-trainer activity on the SDGs and the role of libraries with the Association Council members. The Council members are representatives of 36 states in Nigeria including the Federal Capital, Abuja, so this will be a very good opportunity for awareness-raising at a national level.
- Participants are planning to continue organizing awareness-raising activities in various states until the Annual National Conference in July 2017.
- Participants have agreed with NLA to have an awareness-raising activity as a plenary at the conference.

SWAZILAND

- Participants met with the executive members of Swaziland Library Association \(SWALA\) and discussed ideas for awareness-raising activities on the SDGs and the role to be played by the library association.
- At that meeting participants ensured that members are aware of the contributions libraries make towards implementation of the UN 2030 Agenda. Information was shared on the importance of libraries partnering with policy-makers to be involved in its implementation.
- IFLA handouts were distributed among executive members.
- Participants are planning to engage all SWALA members in a training about the SDGs and how librarians can get involved in the sustainable development activities in Swaziland.

TUNISIA

- The participant is organizing meetings with decision-makers in the public library sector, including key stakeholders from the following organizations: Direction de la lecture publique, Bibliothèque régionale de Ben Arous, L'association des amis du livre et de la bibliothèque de Ben Arous, Fédération nationale des amis du livre et de la bibliothèque, and Bibliothèques dans la délégation régionale de Mahdia.
- A Facebook Group "Le développement des bibliothèques et l'agenda 2030 des UN" was created and more than 100 representatives of public libraries were invited to allow for exchange of information and interaction.
- The participant is organizing a Seminar to take place in February/March 2017 about the role of libraries in sustainable development with the title: "Les bibliothèques peuvent stimuler le progrès à travers tout l'agenda 2030 de l'ONU". The invitees to this seminar will be decision makers in the library sector, 24 regional librarians, as well as representatives from other sectors like civil society, researchers and government officials. The seminar will be then replicated in regional events, focused on the most relevant SDG for each of the regions.
- The Fédération des amis de la bibliothèque et du livre, and L'Association des amis du livre et de la bibliothèque de Ben Arous have signed commitments to support awareness-raising and advocacy activities in Tunisia to ensure libraries are recognized as key development partners for the achievement of the UN 2030 Agenda.

ZIMBABWE

- Participants had a meeting with the Zimbabwe Library Association \(ZimLA\) National Executive Council on 16-17 December 2016 where they gave a presentation reporting back on what they had learned at the IAP workshop.
- ZimLA has decided that participants will take the lead in an advocacy programme and the advocacy officer of the association will join the team.
- An agreement was reached that ZimLA will go out to communities and gather information to be prepared for meetings with the government, including consultations to obtain accurate figures that will be used for advocacy purposes.
- Participants will work in identifying influential librarians that could help with the advocacy and in this case the National Library and Documentation Services \(NLDS\) Acting Director was identified as the key librarian to reach out to the Government.
- Awareness-raising sessions will be organized for public librarians in Zimbabwe.
- A meeting was held between the authorities of ZimLA and the NLDS on 12 January 2017 where they agreed to work together and to advocate for the inclusion of libraries in the National Development Plan.
- Participants will develop an advocacy plan in cooperation with NLDS and ZimLA.
- They will also work in mobilising librarians, particularly in public libraries to get on board with this project and they will develop platforms in which they will provide information on the status of government initiatives regarding national development.

AFRICA-AfLIA

- Participants from the African Library and Information Association and Institution \(AfLIA\) met with the Governing Council to report about the workshop and make plans for the follow up actions. They also informed members on the importance and need to raise awareness in Africa to enable participation in the UN 2030 Agenda planning and implementation.
- The AfLIA Governing Council agreed to support the organisation of two major AfLIA activities and the IAP work in Africa: 1) A presentation on the UN 2030 Agenda during the 2nd convening of the 1st cohort of the AfLIA International Network of Emerging Library Innovators - Sub-Saharan African \(INELI-SSAf\) innovators is scheduled for Seychelles from 20-23 February 2017. There will be group discussions and presentations. The event will include 32 innovators and 8 mentors from 14 countries in Africa; 2) A presentation at the 2nd AfLIA Conference and 4th African Library Summit Conference “Libraries in the Development Agenda: Repositioning African Libraries to deliver on the Future We Want” (Yaoundé, Cameroon, 16-19 May 2017) to create awareness among the LIS community in Africa on the 2030 Agenda, to develop strategies as development partners, and to raise the awareness of LIS educators so that they organise training sessions for their students on this topic.

EUROPE

FRANCE

- Participants are working in creating a French version of the IFLA booklet “Access and Opportunity for all” including examples from French libraries to enable better advocacy work and awareness-raising.

GERMANY

- The German Government approved on 11 January 2017 the updated version of the Deutsche Nachhaltigkeitsstrategie 2016, the national sustainability strategy, incorporating the UN 2030 Agenda goals. The German Library Association \(dbv\) contributed to the draft updated version in the Summer 2016 using IFLA’s booklet and handout. Although libraries are not directly mentioned in the different strategies for reaching the goals, they are mentioned once as an example of how they could contribute to meet the challenges of the demographic changes in rural areas (page 50, project “Trafo”). Also, a large federal government project for cultural education is included as an example, to which libraries contribute and have reached so far about 15.000 educational disadvantaged children and young people in Germany (page 85).
- On 11 January 2017, the Governing board of the Bibliothek & Information Deutschland \(BID\) met with representatives of all library associations in Germany. One of the participants and the IAP Trainer reported on the IAP workshop, the plans for Germany and further involvement of other associations was discussed.
- IAP Trainer (from Germany) has scheduled a three day international summer school at University of Stuttgart in June 2017 to replicate the IAP workshop (using the materials).

SERBIA

- The training course "Who's talking over there?" aimed at building advocacy awareness and skills for librarians in Serbia got accredited by the National Library of Serbia for 2017. The participant will be in charge of developing and implementing the training course, on behalf of Serbian Library Association. Trainings are planned to start on early March 2017.
- The participant had a meeting with the Serbian Library Association Governing Board on 24 January 2017. The presentation included a brief report on IAP workshop and advocacy and UN 2030 Agenda, a discussion for a project proposal to request funding for regional or national awareness-raising and capacity building, and the beginning of a process of identifying the Serbian advocacy delegation. A proposal is in preparation for establishing a New Professionals group in Serbia.

SLOVENIA

- Participants had a meeting with the President of the Library Association of Slovenia on 28 December 2016 where they reported on the IAP workshop and discussed on next steps. Several follow up actions were planned: to organize a meeting with the Ministry of Culture (key policy-maker related to libraries), to publish an article about advocacy in the first issue of our KNJIŽNICA Journal, to write a report about the IAP workshop in the library newsletter KNJIŽNIČARSKE NOVICE with an analysis of the field of advocacy in the Slovenian libraries, and to send continue exploring collaboration opportunities with the Ministry of Culture, as well as other ministries, associations, and libraries.

SPAIN

- On 16 January 2017, participants gave a presentation to the Governing Board of the Federación Española de Sociedades de Archivística, Biblioteconomía, Documentación y Museística \(FESABID\) about the IAP workshop and the follow up actions planned. FESABID agreed to support IAP activities in Spain.
- On 17 January 2017, participants, Manager of FESABID and IFLA President-Elect (Spain) had a meeting with the Deputy General Director of the Coordinación Bibliotecaria within the Ministerio de Educación, Cultura y Deporte (MECD) of Spain, as well as other representatives from the Coordination. Participants offered a presentation on a national proposal for a programme to promote the contribution that libraries can make to the National Development Plan. A national train-the-trainer workshop is planned with the support of MECD before April 2017. The MECD has committed to support IAP activities carried out by FESABID and the Consejo de Cooperación Bibliotecaria \(CCB\) will be involved to be inclusive to autonomous communities.
- On 18 January 2017 a meeting with the IFLA President-Elect, Secretary General, participants and the IFLA National Committee from Spain, co-chaired by FESABID and the Deputy Direction of the Coordinación Bibliotecaria (within the MECD) took place. A national platform for IAP activities was presented and discussed. The Deputy Director agreed to work towards making sure the Minister of Foreign Affairs supports these activities and includes libraries in the National Development Plan for Spain.
- The IFLA President-Elect and Secretary General had a meeting as well with the General Director of Bibliotecas, Archivos y Museos. The IAP was discussed with interest. It was agreed to invite representatives to the workshop. FESABID will also provide guidance to develop a local workshop in the future.
- Participants and IFLA Secretary General met with the General Director of Deporte y Patrimonio Cultural de la Comunidad Autónoma de Madrid Regional Government (Autonomous Government of Madrid) and the Deputy General Director of Bibliotecas de la Comunidad Autónoma de Madrid on 18 January 2017. The IAP was discussed and it was agreed that representatives will be part of the workshop.
- Participants are planning to develop an awareness-raising campaign about UN 2030 Agenda and libraries #libraries4ODGs.
- An advocacy plan is being developed and implemented by participants, working closely with FESABID.
- Several awareness-raising and capacity building activities are being organised, including a workshop for associations by FESABID and activities for library associations, institutions, librarians and civil society.

SWITZERLAND

- Participants and the President of the national association Bibliothek Information Schweiz \(BIS\), had a meeting with the director of the Federal Office of Culture and the director of the Swiss National Library on 22 December 2016. IAP was one topic of that meeting and it will be continued by negotiations for supporting the association and the IAP in Switzerland 2017.
- Participants had contacts with the responsible administration for the implementation of the Agenda 2030 within Switzerland. The feedback was very good and they were surprise about our potential with 20 million contacts per year within all libraries in Switzerland. They are planning a first meeting to present the idea of supporting the UN 2030 Agenda by the IAP.
- Participants attended the Forum for Sustainable Development on 31 January 2017 organized by the Federal Office of Culture and the Federal Office for Spatial Development. The goal is to network and contact the key policy-makers on the Federal level, as well as to contact other institutions in the field of culture in the context of sustainable development that are supporting the Agenda 2030.
- Participants met with the Committee Swiss Association of Public Libraries \(SAB\) on 27 January 2017 and presented the IAP and the plan to adapt IAP in Switzerland.
- On 1 February 2017, participants will present IAP to the SAB and BIS staff to raise their awareness of the UN 2030 Agenda and the role of libraries.
- The BIS-Working group for international relations will have a meeting on 2 February 2017 to start working towards building a delegation/working group to support IAP and generate ideas for implementing.
- Participants will meet with the Committee Swiss Association Library Information Switzerland (BIS) on 7 February 2017 and present the IAP as well as the plan to adapt IAP in Switzerland.
