

The Researcher-Librarian Partnership

The Researcher-Librarian Partnership is a new initiative of IFLA's Library Theory and Research Section for 2010.

Research skill and knowledge are the essential tool kit for ensuring that libraries and librarians continue to effectively and efficiently meet the evolving needs of the clients and communities they serve.

The Researcher-Librarian Partnership is a mentoring Program that will provide the opportunity for new professionals to develop and refine their skill, knowledge and confidence in conducting research.

Congratulations to the six library and information professionals who were selected through a competitive process to take part in the 2010/2011 mentoring program.

Tamara Braithwaite, Trinidad and Tobago
